

Helping Ven. Nanda

On March 19, 2020, during the Coronavirus crisis, Lily, Shehan, and Ashoka visited Ven. Nanda in her hermitage in Wattapatthana, near Kandy. In addition to a copy of Anguttara Nikaya, Part 1, in Sinhala, a gift from Lal in Colombo, they offered vegetables, rice, pasta, coconuts, several bars of Neem handsoap, dish wash and laundry liquid (both eco-friendly), a facemask, and an adjustable metal walking stick for increased mobility. She had informed us that, due to the health crisis, food from devotees was a problem at this time, but her greatest joy was in receiving the book, a long-sought-after, first addition to her library.
