

International Dana in Anniwatte, October 18, 2026

Four monks—Australian, Chinese, Sri Lankan, and Vietnamese—and four Sri Lankan nuns. We shared merit with all of our donors and with friends, old and new and far and near. We sent good wishes to all who are in poor health or in need of protection. We honored the memory of Kawanthissa, the beloved wild tusker recently killed by a poacher's bullet, and expressed our hope for world peace and an end to the atrocious genocides being carried out in Palestine and Myanmar.

May all devas share this merit.
Long may they protect the Buddha Sasana for the welfare of the world.
By this merit, never may I live with fools, but have fellowship with the wise until Nibbana is won.

A few days before the dana, our friend, Ramesh called from his pharmacy, informing us that a nun needed a blood pressure monitor and asked us whether we could help. We were delighted and took the opportunity to invite Ven. Dhamma Sugandhi to the dana. She came and brought her teacher, as well.
