

Dry Rations to One Hundred Fifty Families in Kithulmulla

On May 13, Buddhist Relief Mission provided parcels of dry rations, and Lily, Ewen, and Chandani distributed them to 150 families in the village of Kithulmulla on a tea estate in Hanthana at the edge of Kandy. Tea-estate workers have been hit particularly hard by the economic crisis, and this food was much needed.

With support from our generous donors, Buddhist Relief Mission will continue to distribute food and medicine to needy families and institutions and to assist agricultural projects wherever we can.

May all beings be safe and happy!
