Sri Lanka's public health services face breakdown

4 May 2023

Tisara Senanayake, Kamal Mahagama

Sri Lankan Public Health Services are facing a catastrophic breakdown caused by shortages of doctors and other employees, essential medicines, equipment, and basic facilities. Doctors and health workers confront severe difficulties treating patients, with ward closures, surgery postponements, and a lack of basic pharmaceuticals.

Twice a month, Buddhist Relief Mission offers dana to Ven. Nanda at her hermitage and dry rations to families in the village.

On May 31, Lighthouse Church held a one-day soup kitchen and served lunch to more than 150 hungry people. Buddhist Relief Mission was delighted to join in the project.

From the USA, Tracy and Bonnie brought two oxygen tank regulators and some essential medicines, which they donated to the Emergency Treatment Unit of Kandy Hospital. Other tourists might also be able to bring urgently needed supplies. Please contact us by email or WhatsApp.

On the three-month anniversary of his father's death, Jagath offered dana and dry rations to ten monks and served snacks to the children in Sunday school at a temple in Halloluwa.

In case of a bank deposit, please send donor's name, the amount, and "Sri Lankan Relief" by SMS or WhatsApp to +94-77-964-9292 or by email to <buddhist@brelief.org>

For donation by international electronic transfer by bank, please send a request to <buddhist@brelief.org> for financial instructions.

On the 15th of every month BRM offers high tea and essential medicine to the patients at Kandy Cancer Home.

On Posen Full-Moon Day, BRM joined Bowalawatta Youth Association and Tourist Police, Kandy for a dansal distributing dry rations to poor families.

With the support of generous donors, Buddhist Relief Mission will continue, through our local network in Sri Lanka, distributing food and medicine and assisting small agricultural projects as long as we can. BRM is small 501(c)3 organization with no overhead expenses. Donors can be assured that 100% of gifts is used for relief.

Before giving, one should be happy, anticipating the opportunity to exercise generosity. While giving, one should be happy to be making another happy. After giving, one should be satisfied that they have performed a good deed.
