

Supporting the Kandy Cancer Society

Last year, the Kandy Cancer Society began a program of distributing nutritious lunch packets to OPD patients receiving treatment at Kandy National Hospital. Patients from outlying districts often leave home without breakfast. Furthermore, many cannot afford the time or money to buy lunch while being treated. During chemotherapy treatment, it is important for patients to maintain a healthy diet. Treatment on an empty stomach may actually increase nausea and other side effects. Recently, due to a lack of funds, the Society had to suspend the program. A few days ago, with a grant from Buddhist Relief Mission, the distribution was resumed, but this program requires about 20,000 rupees (US$65) per day. The Society intends to continue the program, but its success depends on private donations.

On the fifteenth of every month, Buddhist Relief Mission offers High Tea, medicine, and dry rations to the residents of the Kandy Cancer Home, run by the Society for patients from outlying areas who require prolonged treatment at the hospital. The mid-day snack includes homemade sandwiches, vegetable cutlets, and nutritious soup. Each month, merit is shared with recently departed friends and relatives, healing wishes are sent to those suffering from illness, congratulations are given to those celebrating special occasions, and gratitude is expressed to the donors.
